

Rain's No Pain! Read & Write Prompt

Directions: Read the poem "Rain's No Pain!" Look carefully at the first two verses. They follow a pattern. Use this pattern to write your own two-verse poem. Think of places where rain can fall. List those places in the box. Then, choose from your list and write your poem. Your poem may rhyme like "Rain's No Pain!", or it may not. When you are finished, draw pictures to illustrate your poem.

Idea Banks: Where does rain fall?

Rain on _____,

Rain on _____,

Rain on _____,

Rain on _____.

Rain on _____,

Rain on _____,

Rain on _____,

Rain on _____.