

Sailor and the Sea

Adapted by Dr. Maggie Allen

A sailor went to sea, sea, sea,
To see what he could see, see, see.
But all that he could see, see, see
Was the bottom of the S-E-A!

The sailor tried to swim, swim, swim,
Had no life jacket with him, him, him.
He curled up into a ball, ball, ball,
But down he went, that's all, all, all!

I jumped into the sea, sea, sea,
And brought him up with me, me, me.
I told him he should float, float, float,
Then pulled him into the boat, boat, boat.

The sailor jumped from the boat, boat, boat
Into the water to float, float, float.
He stretched his body flat, flat, flat,
Floated well, so that is that!
