

Another fun poem format is the Answer-a-Question poem.

Directions:

Have children brainstorm all of the things they think of when they think of summer, select their five best, then complete the form. Remember, the lines do not rhyme, they just complete the thought and build comprehension about the topic.

What is Summer?

Summer is _____

Summer is _____

Summer is _____

Summer is _____

Summer is _____

That's summer!

