

Patterns in the Environment

Let children use their crayons/markers and Math Journals to draw and record patterns in the classroom, in clothing, in nature.

Patterns from the "Materials List"

Allow children to use everyday items (from the Materials List) to manipulate and make patterns. Photograph the patterns, print them, and use the photos in centers for children to use to re-create or extend patterns.

